"Once to Every Woman" is a big appealing picture. It is the story of an ambitious girl—a girl so ambitious that she sacrifices parents, family, love and almost every human happiness on the altar of her goddess—Fame. Mr. Cassidy is a man of unswerving integrity and high ability. If elected, there is no doubt but that he will discharge the duties of the office with credit to himself and satisfaction to the public. ## DR. N. T. CLARK.

We your committee to whom was referred the matter of a suitable resolution of respect to the memory of Brother N. T. Clark who died May 24th at the age of 72 years, beg to report as follows.

That since July 2, 1912 Brother Clark has been a consistent member of Bath Lodge No. 55 F. & A. M. who came to us from Cox Lodge No. 264 Campion, Ky., that we have ever found him a true Mason, in dealing with his fellow man and brother, his charities were measured only by his ability. That he did not hesitate in the practice of his profession to follow the dictates of conscience and often without any chance of remuneration go when and where needed.

Therefore Be It Resolved

That in his death Bath Lodge No. 55 has lost a faithful and true member, his Church a devout christian, his community a loyal and patriotic citizen, whose place cannot be easily taken, and to those of his immediate family and his many friends we offer our sincerest sympathy, and point them to Him, the Supreme Architect Who doeth all things well.

Be It Further Resolved

That a vote of thanks be extended Winchester Lodge No. 20 for the courtesy extended Bath Lodge No. 55 in the assistance rendered at the death and burial of Brother Clark.

Be It Further Resolved

That these resolutions be spread upon our records, that the same be published in the local newspaper and a copy be sent the family, and to Winchester Lodge No. 20 that this Lodge room be suitably draped, and the brethren wear the usual badge of mourning for a period of thirty days. All of which is most respectfully submitted.

Carey SHINGLES

THESE shingles do not rot, the nail heads that fasten them do not rust off, they do not dry out, curl or split, wind does not loosen them.

This is because the body of the shingle is made of wool felt saturated and built up with Carey tempered asphalt which protects the nail heads and makes the shingle elastic, flexible and permanently water-proof.

Carey Shingles meet the requirements of building laws and fire underwriters. They are surfaced with crushed slate which is spark-proof.

They are offered in red or green shades—the natural fadeless slate colors. They require no paint to keep them permanently beautiful. Place your order early.

ANOTHER WOMAN ESCAPES

Number Avoided a Serious Injury by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time

Down, Ill.—"After my first child was born I suffered so with my left side that I could not walk across the room unless I was all humped over, holding my side. I doctored with several doctors but found no relief and they said I would have to have an operation. My mother insisted on my taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. Now I can do all my own work and it is the Vegetable Compound that has saved me from an operation. I cannot praise your medicine too highly and I tell all of my friends and neighbors what the Compound did for me." — Mrs. MARGARET MCCUMBER, 27 S. Frazier St., Georgetown, Illinois.

Lydia E. Pinkham is one of the unnumbered thousands of housewives who struggle to keep about their daily tasks, while suffering from the ailments peculiar to women with backache, sideaches, headaches, bearing-down pains and nervousness, and if every such woman should profit by her experience and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial they would get well.

WOMEN NEED SWAMP-ROOT

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble. Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper—Adv.

Fatal to Flies. Fly-swatters and screens will be relegated to the junk pile if the Department of Agriculture finds merit in the fly-killing properties claimed for a sprilling grown from the seed of a Kentucky coffee tree by the late Prof. George F. Holmes of the University of Virginia. Professor Holmes asserted that the tree gave off a peculiar poison fatal to flies and therefore was a boon to humanity. He planted it in his garden and requested that it be dedicated as his only memorial.

Kentucky News Cullings

An epitome of the most important events transpiring throughout the state

Whitesboro.—David Adington, Jeweler, St. Paul, Va., and formerly of this state, was shot and instantly killed by R. L. Harmon, policeman of that town. It is said the officer was trying to make an arrest.

Lagrange.—E. B. Cunningham, 67, a farmer of Cedar Point, five miles from Lagrange, committed suicide by cutting his throat. Ill health is given as the probable cause. Cunningham is survived by a wife and seven children. The funeral will be held at Campbellsville Tuesday.

Glasgow.—Joe Bush, 75 years old, tied his feet together, fastened the rope to the stump of a tree on the bank of Peters Creek, near here, and then plunged headlong into the stream, where his body, submerged to the ankles, was found by his family who live two miles from Lucas, this county. Once Bush expressed a desire to drown.

Rowling Green.—A number of Bowling Green fishermen have been violating the fish and game laws by selling and dumping in the streams of Warren county, according to a statement made by D. E. Blackwell, Deputy Game Warden, Greenville, Ky., who said that he has obtained sufficient evidence against several persons and will appear before the September grand jury to ask for indictments.

Rowling Green.—"Doc" Moore, 28, and Frank Haynes, 40, were killed instantly and Moore's nephew, Edgar Moore, probably fatally hurt when struck by lightning near Amos, ten miles west of Scottsville. The men had been plowing on Haynes' farm and stopped under a tree during a storm. Both men leave widows.

Frankfort.—The bank resources of the 464 state banks March 3, 1921, were $231,262,633.89, according to an abbreviated report of the conditions of the state banks and trust companies of that date issued by James P. Lewis, state banking commissioner. The resources are divided as follows: Loans, $152,490,634.71; bonds, $30,888, 308.45; cash and reserve, $56,515,270.31; overdrafts, $1,478,341.74; capital, $20,655, 788.53; surplus and undivided profits, $5,505,181.12; time and savings deposits, $35,000,000.78; demand deposits, $116,856,277.67; bills payable, $7,644, 108.34.

Frankfort.—Instruction camps will be held at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., Camp Sherman, Ohio, and Camp Knott, Ky., for such officers and non-commissioned officers as desire to attend. Only two officers and one non-commissioned officer from each unit will be authorized to attend a camp and Adj. Gen. Jackson Morris suggests that such officers be designated by the unit commanders, the selections to reach his office not later than May 20. The amount of federal funds allotted for this state will not permit of the attendance of a greater number than three from each Kentucky unit.

Louisville.—Children in Louisville schools will be asked to complete the list of men and women who served during the World War, it was announced by Prof. Zenas E. Scott, superintendent of public schools. Orders directing the teachers in every grade to require pupils to supply the names of all relatives who were in the military service were issued. The material obtained will be given to the Kentucky Historical Society. Previous efforts to obtain a complete list have failed, but it is hoped by this method to perfect the roster. Careful checking of names will be resorted to prevent duplication of records. Only Louisville and Jefferson county will be included in the survey.

Frankfort.—Adjutant General Jackson Morris announced the authorized state staff corps and departments of the Kentucky National Guard as follows: Jackson Morris, lieutenant colonel, adjutant general's department; William L. Wallace, Frankfort, major, judge advocate department; Isaac Wilder, Booneville, major, ordnance department; Thomas W. Woodard, Frankfort, major, quartermaster corps; Frank H. Lusse and Jacob Smith, Frankfort, captains, quartermaster corps. He also announced the appointments of Henry J. Stiles, Louisville, major, inspector general's department; John B. Mason, London, major, medical corps; and Wilsey S. Morris, Raywick, captain, quartermaster corps, completing the state staff corps and department of the Kentucky National Guard.

Danville.—Thirteen cars of a freight train northbound from Oakdale were derailed at Southfork, Lincoln county. The cars were loaded with lumber, ties and iron.

Olive Hill.—Oscar Harper, 21 years old, World War veteran, was shot and killed instantly at Glimet, police say, by Robert Nickell, a neighbor. Officials attribute the shooting to a grudge that is said to have existed between Harper and Nickell since Jacob Harper, father of Oscar, was killed by L. Johnson several years ago.

Owensboro.—Mrs. Bertha Gordon compromised her $20,000 damage suit against G. W. Eskridge and other for $605 and costs. Townsley shot and killed Peyton Gordon on the streets of Owensboro in May, 1919, and is now serving a term of twenty-one years in the penitentiary. Mrs. Gordon filed suit against Townsley at the time of the shooting. In coming to Owensboro from Kalamazoo, Mich., her present home, to attend the trial, Mrs. Gordon fell down a stairway and suffered a broken wrist and was badly lacerated.

Determines Ocean's Depth. By sounding with sound waves instead of a steel cable a Frenchman has been able to determine the depth of the ocean in a few seconds, where the ordinary process requires minutes and hours. In contrast to the usual equipment of cable, reels, and donkey engine he equips himself simply with a quantity of high explosive, a chronometer and a chronometer. Detecting a charge of explosive in the wake of a moving vessel, he hears in his microphone both the noise of det-

Frankfort.—The Importers and Exporters Fire Insurance Company, of New York, was admitted to do business in this state by Insurance Commissioner James F. Ramey. It will do a stock fire and marine business, and has a capital of $700,000, with admitted assets of $2,240,000.

Winchester.—Relatives of Kelly B. Osborne, reported to have died in service during the World War, asked the local post of the American Legion to investigate the identity of a man known only as "Willbur Henry," now in an Albany, N. Y., hospital suffering from loss of memory. The request was made as a result of a story distributed over Kentucky telling of efforts being made to identify the man.

Harlan.—In frustrating an alleged attempt to liberate a prisoner in his custody, James Clem, town marshal, is declared to have shot and killed Lloyd Cornett at Poor Fork. The demand to free a man named Holbrook, in their custody, is said to have been made on Clem and Jim Creech, deputy sheriffs, by Cornett. The officers' refusal met with a pistol shot from Cornett, according to the report. Clem, in returning the fire, killed Cornett, two bullets taking effect.

Frankfort.—One of the greatest riches of Kentucky, and one which never has been drawn upon, although preparations are under way for extensive operations, is the oil shale that crops out in thirty-three counties, according to a paper just published by Prof. Willard R. Allison, state geologist. The deposits of shale that are commercially workable, he estimated, are worth $61,901,085,305 at a conservative estimate.

Owensboro.—Because the proposed route for the Ohio River road through the eastern section of Daviess county passes through several front yards and runs within a few feet of a number of front doors at the town Maclure, there is some delay in letting the contract for that portion of the road. It is expected that an agreement will be reached within the next few days with the landowners and the contract will then be let. There is only a short distance of road to be improved in Daviess county to connect with the Hancock County Ohio River route road.

Frankfort.—The greatest duty the tax commissioner owes to the public is to see that all property subject to taxation is assessed at its fair value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale, said Attorney General Charles I. Dawson, in an address at the county tax commissioner's conference. Unless property is assessed at its fair value, each taxpayer, General Dawson said, the burden of taxation can not be equitably distributed. A fair cash value assessment would mean more taxes and permit a reduction of the tax rate both for state and local purposes.

Lexington.—Stocks and bonds totaling $23,709 in value were taken from the safes in two offices in the McClelland office building, on Short street, it was reported to police. From a safe in the office of Dr. J. S. Goodrich $500 in Liberty bonds and $12,000 in bonds were taken, and from Bailey D. Barry, lawyer, $200 in Liberty bonds and War Savings stamps and $11,000 in stocks. Most of the stocks are not negotiable without signature. The robberies were discovered upon Barry's return from Cincinnati, where he has been under care of a physician. The safes were opened without aid of an explosive.

Bowling Green.—A petition signed by Judge McKenzie Moss, trial judge, Commonwealth Attorney John H. Gilman and County Attorney G. D. Milliken, will be presented to Gov. Morrow in a few days for the parole of Rosa Jones from the Frankfort penitentiary. Three children, one girl, aged 9, who is ill, two sons 5 and 3 years old, live in a one-room shanty on the Underwood farm in Lovers' Lane. They remain alone all day while the stepfather, Mark Chandler, is at work in the fields. The Jones woman was convicted with Martin Brown, oil driller, at the January term of court for grand larceny.

Frankfort.—Having declared that it was his intention to serve out the entire two years of his sentence rather than to go to work in the shoeshop, Rancey Hall, serving two years for assault with intent to kill, was adjudged insane and will be taken to the Eastern State Hospital at Lexington. Hall shattered all records for remaining in the "sol," having occupied it for more than forty days. Twenty days ago he was taken out of the solitary on his promise to go to work. After getting a good night's sleep and his breakfast he again "struck" and remained in the "sol." Prison officials declare that Hall's case is the most peculiar they ever have dealt with. He was deprived of the usual bread and water of the solitary menu for forty-eight hours, but this did not cause him to weaken in his refusal to work.

Frankfort.—The right of women to serve on juries is the question involved in the case of Adolph McLaughlin against the Commonwealth, which was taken to the Court of Appeals from the Jefferson Circuit Court. McLaughlin was convicted of shooting and wounding and sentenced to twelve months in jail. He attempted to secure his release by habeas corpus proceedings, questioning the legality of the verdict on the ground that women could not serve on juries. The court dismissed the writ and the case comes up new on its merits.

Louisville.—Burglars obtained $5,400 in cash, Liberty bonds and jewelry by cracking a safe in the office of the Mary Anderson Theater, after wounding a man who was tuning the theater organ and using ropes to render the night watchman helpless. A few minutes later they fled from Keith's National Theater after firing a shot at the night watchman, who surprised them in the theater lobby. They left in an automobile and were seen by several persons, who said there were four in the band.

An Old-Fashioned Girl. "Did you hear what that young woman said?" "No. What is it?" "She told the young fellow with her that she 'just loved to cook'."

"Ah! An old-fashioned girl. She's using the 'ramping' methods popular twenty years ago."

Current Affairs. "Does your wife take any interest in current politics?" "Not at present. She's too much taken up with current style."

SHIPPING BOARD IS CHARGED WITH GRAFT

WILLIAM S. KENYON, IOWAN TELLS SENATORS IN DEBATE ON DEFICIT BILL.

Reckless Spending of Funds Charged, But Budget Passes, With Boost of $55,000,000—Kentucky Hospital Project Is Among Items.

Washington.—After hearing denunciations of the Shipping Board for its "mismanagement" of the merchant marine by Senator William S. Kenyon, of Iowa, Republican, and others, the Senate approved a $75,000,000 deficiency appropriation for it, and a few hours later passed the deficiency appropriation bill, carrying a total of $15,000,000, inclusive of the Shipping Board item. In approving the appropriation the Senate added an amendment offered by Senator Irvine L. Lenroot, of Wisconsin, Republican, directing the board to sell all wooden ships before October 1.

The board, in its management of the merchant marine, was described by Senator Kenyon as being extravagant, wasteful and "reeking with graft." Other Senators, including Atlee Pomerene, of Ohio, Democrat, and Miles T. Pendergast, of Washington, Republican, denounced the board, but the higher salaries of a number of its members, including Walter E. Edge, of New Jersey, Republican; Wesley L. Jones, of Washington, Republican, and others, while saying there had been extravagance and waste in the past, argued that the new board, soon to be appointed, should not be penalized through lack of funds for mistakes that were "water over the dam."

Salaries paid to Shipping Board officials and employees were the particular target against which Senator Kenyon shot his hottest invectives. He read into the Congressional record a list of the higher salaries of a number of them drawing salaries running into five figures, and showed to the Senate a book a foot square and a half inch thick which, he said, contained only the names of employees of the board. Estimating that Shipping Board operations were costing the government a daily cost of $500,000, Senator Kenyon declared that "unless these expenses can be stopped the American public will not stand for this thing much longer."

The Iowa Senator's charges aroused the Senate so that in the debate of the deficiency bill that followed, a half dozen Senators were on their feet at the same time, seeking either to denounce the board and its administration or to defend it, and plead for the approval of the $75,000,000 appropriation, a net increase of $50,000,000 in excess of the amount given to the board by the House.

America's Sole Judge. Washington.—Intimations from Paris that the Reparations Commission again might take up the question of the status under reparations agreements of the German shipping seized in this country during the war, were met here with the statement that payments to the commission on account of these seizures was a question for the United States alone to decide.

Few Cheers in Moscow. Riga, Latvia.—The Third Congress of the Third Internationale is scheduled to open in the Kremlin at Moscow amid a setting greatly contrasting with previous gatherings of the world's "direct actionists." The Moscow Izvestia announced that but little ceremony is attached to the meetings, which in previous years were the occasion of great proletarian rejoicing.

Have a Chew? Atlantic City, N. J.—Dr. William H. Gelston, of Camden, told the New Jersey State Dental Society, in annual convention here, that an "old-fashioned chew of tobacco" was one of the best disinfectants known to dental science. He declared that if reformers succeeded in banishing tobacco, diseases of the teeth and gums were likely to increase.

Outlay of $800,000,000. Phoenix, Ariz.—Application of the Southern California Edison Company to the United States circuit court for leave to sue the Colorado River was filed with the State Water Commissioner. Promoters of the project say it involves an ultimate expenditure of about $800,000,000, or twice as much as the sum spent on the Panama Canal.

Nab Only Four Deserters. New York.—Of 7,572 alleged draft dodgers in this district only four have been turned over to the army as deserters, United States Attorney Caffey announced. He added that only 729 had been located, and in the cases of 427 no longer prosecuted had been entered for various reasons.

Eleven Are Arrested. Williamson, W. Va.—Following a hull in which not an arrest was made by the state police for more than 60 hours, 11 men were taken into custody. The municipal election conducted in Williamson permitted gathering of small bodies of men at the polling places and four arrests were made in the city. W. C. Coombs, one of the witnesses for the defendants in the Maewan battle trial of last January, was arrested at Kernitt, W. Va. He is said to have carried a revolver.

Veterans' Bonus Measure. Washington.—Additional arguments in support of early passage of the soldiers' adjusted compensation bill was submitted to a subcommittee of the Senate Finance Committee by a committee from the American Legion, composed of Colonel Fred W. Galbraith Jr., and Gilbert Bettanet, of Cincinnati, National Commander and member of the Executive Committee, respectively, and John Thomas Taylor, of Philadelphia, a member of the Legislative Committee.

Live Stock. Cattle.—Steers, good to choice $7.50 to $8.50, fair to good $6.50 to $7.50, common to fair $5.50 to $6.50, heifers, good to choice $8.00 to $9.00, fair to good $7.00 to $8.00, common to fair $6.00 to $7.00, canners $1.25 to $1.50, stock heifers $5.00 to $6.00.

Calves.—Good to choice $8.50 to $10.00, fair to good $7.50 to $8.50, common to fair $6.50 to $7.50, canners $1.25 to $1.50, stock calves $5.00 to $6.00.

Hogs.—Heavy $8.25 to $8.50, choice packers and butchers $8.50 to medium $8.50, common to choice heavy fat sows $5.00 to $6.00, light sows $4.50 to $5.00, pigs $1.00 to $1.25.

RETAINED RELICS OF GALILEO

Fanatical Admirer of the Great Italian Insisted on Keeping Portions of His Body.

The report that Robert Bruce's heart has been discovered at Melrose, in Scotland, reminds an Italian paper of the fate of Galileo's remains, according to the Manchester (Eng.) Guardian.

When the body of Galileo was exhumed from its original resting place on March 12, 1737, and removed to the magnificent mausoleum in the Church of Santa Croce, Florence, Marquis Vincenzo Capponi, who was a fanatical admirer of Galileo, took possession of the right-hand thumb and forefinger.

Some of those present at the exhumation protested strongly, but the marquis had his way, declaring his intention to "cherish these fingers as sacred relics," which prompted the report: "Instead of Galileo's fingers it would be better for you to have his brains."

This bad example proved contagious, for the left thumb and one of the ribs were annexed by two other members of the company, and these relics are now in the museum of the university. Marquis Capponi had an order for his portion of the body, which all newcomers were called upon to admire as the greatest treasure in the house.

At the beginning of the last century the Capponi family fell upon evil days and emigrated to France, leaving the Galileo relics to become the property of an old butler who had long been in their service. Other oddments given him by his master proved saleable, but he could find no market for Galileo's finger and thumb, and these eventually passed to one of the butler's descendants, Signora Laura Joul. In 1905, when she was old and poor, some one advised Signora Joul to offer to sell the relics to the Italian government. Inquiries were instituted which proved the authenticity of the relics beyond a doubt, and they are now preserved with other mementoes of Galileo, the vendor having received a handsome price for them.

Bad Control. Producer Hal E. Ruch found his star comedian, Harold Lloyd, sprawled on the dressing-room floor trying to get a million dollars' worth of laugh out of his system. Lloyd had turned a studio corner at the right moment to see what he would be a "hot scrap" between two dinky "extras." Just when it appeared that the heavy blows were on tap, one of the belligerents started on a dead run across the lot and hurdled a fence.

"I'm surprised at you, G. W.," Lloyd said when he met the runaway a half hour later, never thought you would show a streak of yellow like that."

"Ah wasn't runnin', Mistah Lloyd, honest 'Ah wasn't," came the answer: "Ah'm 'flicted 'at way. Whenever Ah gets in a fight, Ah jus' kain't control mah legs, 'at's all."

A Sane Goffer. "Well, I've at last reached the point where I think I shall be able to get a little comfort out of golf."

"That so? Mastered the swing, have you?" "Not at all. I've just brought myself, after years of disappointment, to the conclusion that I am never going to be an amateur champion. From now on I shall try to enjoy breaking one hundred now and then."

"Uncle Joe's" First Wage. Joseph G. Cannon, former speaker of the national house of representatives, went to work in 1850 at the age of fourteen years. His first job was clerk in a grocery store, and one of his duties was to deliver parcels as well as wrap them. He worked "from sun to sun," as was the custom in those days, and in the winter he started work before sunup and worked until sundown. His wage was $1.50 a week out of which he was expected to board and clothe himself.

Perkins Keep Wives Apart. The most interesting fact I gathered from the round guard was that he had seven sons and (many) daughters. He did not have to count—and two wives, one at Abadeh and one at Surmek. I found most Mohammedan worthies agreed that, though allowed four legal wives, one is generally enough, and if two are owned they are placed in separate localities, as the saying runs, "Better two tigers in a single den than two braying wenchies."—National Geographic Magazine.

Nothing Serious. "You have no heart?" This sounds like a melodrama. "No, I use your tongue."

"No, it's a doctor calling. 'Gimme some tripe.'"

After all, it's just an episode at the butcher's.

LESSON FOR JUNE 12

MAKING THE WORLD CHRISTIAN. LESSON TEXT—Isa. 11:1-10; Acts 1:6-9. GOLDEN TEXT—"The earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.—Isa. 11:9.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Esther 4:13-16; Ps. 2:12; Prov. 14:34.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus' Love for the World.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Jesus Did for the World.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Helping to Make a Better World.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christian Patriotism.

If by "Making the World Christian" the lesson committee means the conversion of the world in this dispensation, then we submit that they are in error, leading the people into false hopes. The main text chosen for our study pictures the glorious coming age when Christ shall reign over the whole earth. Before this will take place Christ shall come in person and destroy the works of the devil and bind him and cast him into the pit (Rev. 19:11-21; II Thess. 2:3-10).

1. The Reign of Messiah the King (Isa. 11:1-12).

1. Messiah's lineage (v. 1). It was to be of David's line—royal stock. A rod or twig was to come out of Jesse, which indicates that the royal house was in a depressed state.

2. Messiah's qualifications (v. 2). (1) The Spirit of the Lord, that is, a divine person proceeding from the Father and Son. (2) Spirit of wisdom, giving insight into all things human and divine. (3) Spirit of understanding, that is, to choose that which is highest and best. (4) Spirit of counsel, that is, the ability to make plans. (5) Spirit of might, that is, the ability to execute His plans. (6) Spirit of knowledge, that is, the ability to perceive the will of God in all things. (7) The fear of the Lord, that is, reverential and obedient fear.

3. The character of Messiah (v. 3-5). (1) Quick to understand goodness (v. 3). (2) He shall not judge after external appearances (v. 3). (3) Shall not decide upon hearsay (v. 3). Each case shall be decided upon on the basis of absolute and perfect knowledge. (4) He shall defend and avenge the poor and meek of the earth (v. 4). The meek shall inherit the earth when Messiah reigns (Matt. 5:5). (5) Shall smite the earth (v. 4). Those whom He smites are the ungodly inhabitants who are then in federation against Christ. The head of this federation is the Antichrist (2 Thess. 2:3-4). (6) He shall have a zeal for justice and truth (v. 5).

4. Universal peace (vv. 6-9). This is a picture of the glorious golden age of which poets have sung and for which the wise men of all ages have longed and looked. There will then be peace not only between men, but between animals. This peace and harmony is shown in that in each change suggested each animal is coupled with its natural prey. (1) The wolf shall dwell with the lamb (v. 6). "Dwell" means intimacy, as if the lamb should receive the wolf into its home. The only place and circumstance at present in which the wolf and lamb dwell together is when the lamb is inside the wolf. (2) The leopard shall lie down with the kid (v. 6). (3) The calf, young lion, and fattening shall be together (v. 6). They are so gentle and peaceable that a little child can lead them. (4) The cow and the bear shall feed together (v. 7). (5) The lion shall eat straw (v. 7). No longer flesh. (6) The sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp (v. 8). The most venomous serpent shall not harm little children. This blessed condition shall prevail over the whole earth (v. 9).

5. All nations shall gather unto him (vv. 10-12). The glorious reign of Christ shall attract the Gentile nations. This is the full purpose of the kingdom, namely, to attract the nations of the earth to Jesus Christ.

II. The Supreme Obligation of Believers in This Age (Acts 1:6-9). While we are not responsible for bringing forth the kingdom, we are under solemn obligation to witness of the salvation which is graciously provided for all who will believe on Christ.

1. The disciples' question (v. 6). They were perplexed as to the time of the kingdom's establishment. They were right in the expectation of the kingdom, but were still in darkness as to the real purpose of God in calling the church.

2. Christ's answer (vv. 7, 8). He turned their attention from the desire to know times and seasons, which belong to God, to their supreme duty. They were to be witnesses of Christ to the uttermost parts of the earth, beginning at Jerusalem.

The Gleanings. When ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest. Thou shalt leave them for the poor, and stranger. I am the Lord, your God.—Leviticus 19:9, 10.

Walketh in Darkness. He that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.—I John 2:11.

The Use of Glass. Glass is not altogether a modern requisite. It was used by the Romans in the time of Tiberius, and the ruins of Pompeii show windows of glass used before the year 79. In medieval times wonderful effects were created with glass.

Amazed by Their Own Images. "Wonder why the fashions change so?" "Perhaps they are trying to elude some of the people who are following them."

Deference to Public Opinion. "Why should a man of your wealth care for money?" "I don't care for it," protested Mr. Dustin Stax. "It's the importance that other people attach to it that makes the individual feel it's desirable to have as much of it as possible."

Our Language. "Don't you think Braggins puts out too much side?"

Mint Leaves. You'll notice—if you wander around in the back yard or the vacant lot across the way—that the soft, dark green leaves of mint are beginning to show. Guard it jealously. Did you know that a few crushed leaves in lemonade will add a tang which is delightful?

U. S. TUBES
The same standard of quality built into U. S. Tires is put into U. S. Tubes.

Why some men seem to have all the tire luck —

YOU probably know a man whose car is a hobby with him. He knows just why it's the best little old car there is of its class.

And he'll stand up for that car against the world in any kind of an argument.

Year by year an increasing number of men feel the same way about U. S. Tires.

For a while they may try "job lot" stuff, "bargains," "big discounts" and "rebates."

But usually it doesn't take long for a man to sense the economy of the standard quality tire.

For years U. S. Tire makers have been building quality tires for sane tire users—for the car of medium or light weight no less than for the heavy car.

The tire buyers of the land have responded with a mighty U. S. Tire following.

"Find the U. S. Tire dealer with the full, completely equipped line of fresh, live U. S. Tires."

The U. S. Tire makers meet the responsibility for supplying this nationwide following with characteristic energy.

Ninety-two U. S. Factory Branches are established, covering the entire country.

Find the U. S. Tire dealer who has the intention of serving you. You will know him by his full, completely sized line of fresh, live U. S. Tires—quality first, and the same choice of size, tread and type as in the biggest cities of the land.

UNUSUAL CONDITION

Texas Lady Suffered With Pulling and Aching Pains in Her Back, Which Cardui Relieved.

Houston, Texas.—Mrs. C. D. Cook, of 1912 Whitty Street, this city, recently said: "About four months after my marriage, I began suffering much pain, and knew that my condition was unusual, but couldn't just decide what was wrong. I had to go to bed."

"All across my back and hips were pains, pulling and aching until I could hardly sit up. I stayed in bed a few days. My husband had heard of Cardui... so I told him he might get it."

"After I had taken Cardui a few days, I was up. I took five bottles and haven't been in bed since for this trouble, for if I have the least symptoms of this trouble I get Cardui and take it in time."

"I have a number of friends who have used Cardui, and they recommend it very highly."

The experience of this Texas lady is similar to that related by thousands of other women.

UNUSUAL CONDITION

Texas Lady Suffered With Pulling and Aching Pains in Her Back, Which Cardui Relieved.

Houston, Texas.—Mrs. C. D. Cook, of 1912 Whitty Street, this city, recently said: "About four months after my marriage, I began suffering much pain, and knew that my condition was unusual, but couldn't just decide what was wrong. I had to go to bed."

"All across my back and hips were pains, pulling and aching until I could hardly sit up. I stayed in bed a few days. My husband had heard of Cardui... so I told him he might get it."

"After I had taken Cardui a few days, I was up. I took five bottles and haven't been in bed since for this trouble, for if I have the least symptoms of this trouble I get Cardui and take it in time."

"I have a number of friends who have used Cardui, and they recommend it very highly."
